Important Guidelines & Safety Information

- Please take full responsibility for your personal belongings. Avoid carrying valuables or expensive electronics.
- Be cautious while taking photographs, especially near edges or on steep terrain. No photo is worth risking your life.
- Strictly no consumption of alcohol or any kind of intoxicants before or during the trek.
- If you have any past or current health conditions (including heart issues, recent surgeries, cramps, seizures, or diabetes), you must inform the booking team or trek leader in advance. This is mandatory for your safety.
- This is an adventurous forest and mountain trek. Be mentally and physically prepared for natural challenges such as changing weather, slippery paths, or steep climbs.
- In case of unavoidable circumstances such as local strikes, government restrictions, bad weather, roadblocks, or forest department closures, parts of the itinerary — including the trek — may need to be modified or cancelled for safety reasons. If such changes occur after reaching the base location, KeralaTrekking will do its best to either reschedule your trek or provide a partial refund, depending on the situation and expenses already incurred. Your safety is our top priority, and we appreciate your understanding in such rare and unpredictable situations.
- All participants must be in reasonably good physical & mental health, with the stamina for a 50+ km, 3-day trek.

Payment & Cancellation Policy

- Full payment is required at the time of booking.
- Permits are booked through the Kerala Forest Department portal and are non-refundable.
- No cancellation or refund is possible once booked.
- Name transfer may be allowed only if the forest department portal permits changes before the trek date. Otherwise, the booking will lapse if the participant cancels.
- Please book only if you are fully committed to joining this trek.
